CHANCERY SALE SYCAMORE MILL

PROPERTY. BATURDAY, 3D OF NOVEMBER, 1866,

two and three years, in equal payments but with interest from date, that valuable and well known property, lying in Cheatham county, Tennessee Sycamore Mills.

This property is to be sold in order to close up an old partnership concern, and to make distribu-tion, some of the parties having died. It consists of some Thirteen Hunnired Agres of Land of some Thirteen Hundred Acres of Land, or more, is well watered and heavily timbered, and has on it the above named property. "Sycamore MHL." for manufacturing Cotton Yarna, Gunpewder, and for Weaving, as also a Grist and Saw Mill, with all necessary buildings for families, shops, etc. for all the hands necessary to manage the same, and is well worthy theattention of capitalists. North and South, East and West, the water power being of the finest character, and the location sufficient for manufacturing on an extended scale.

It is situated about four miles from Comberland river, and about equ distan between Nashville and Clarksville—about 25 miles above the latter, and the same distance from the former.

Strangers coming by way of the river, would perhaps find it most convenient to land at Ashland City, at the head of the Harpeth Shoals.

Honds with good personal security will be required, and a lien retained to secure the purchase money. ### AF Pive Hundred Dollars in each will be required to be paid; and any or all of said purchas money, can be paid and stop interest at any time MILES S. Particular Notice. I WISH TO RECTIFY A GRAND MISTAKE.

In the piace of Laura B. Green leaving John L. Green's bed and beard, as published in yesterday's paper it was just the reverse. I will state and indorse the following facts:
John L. Green came with wife and child in the menth of Jaboary to board at my house, and continued there until the latter part of July, when he, without any just cause known to me, left, taking with him the child, she remaining at my house, where she still is.
